

I fully enjoy the depth of variety of programming options that XM Radio has to offer ... especially the weather and traffic updates by city. I find this to be a valuable (and much needed) service. I favor allowing XM Radio the freedom to operate such services as they do not detract from the public service but rather are a benefit to the public good.

Sincerely,
Jason K.